INTRODUCTION.

The history of this Parish having been written so lately*, only short extracts will be given in this introductory preface to the Parish Registers, while the Registers themselves will be more fully dealt with.

Over Areley, otherwise Upper Arley, has an area of 3,912 acres, and a population—according to the Census of 1911—of 634, mostly occupied in agriculture. The parish is divided by the River Severn into two unequal parts, that on the east bank being much the larger. Until as recently as 1895 Arley was in the County of Stafford. With a trifling exception we have had no connection with that Shire. With the County of "the proud Salopians," we have had relations in the Burnels and Burleys; with Herefordshire during two hundred years in the powerful and haughty Barons de Mortimer; with Worcestershire for three hundred years in the illustrious Lytteltons; but with Staffordshire in nothing—except the Assizes and the Sheriff! When this connection began is, I believe, unknown, but it might have been when the famous Wulfruna handed the parish over to the Canons of Wolverhampton. In the great confusion at the time of the Conquest, many Manors dropped out of their Counties, as e.g., Clent, Halesowen, Swinford, and others, while Quatt was shared between no less than three. Had Arley been given to a Norman Baron, we should—in all probability—have been placed in Shropshire or Worcestershire. As it is after no less than 899 years, the Civil Parish has at last been included in the County of "the Faithful City," with which place we had some connection in the reign of William Rufus. In 1905 the Ecclesiastical Parish of Arley was transferred from Lichfield to the Diocese of Worcester, ten years after the Civil Parish had been annexed to that County.

Arley, undoubtedly dates back to very early times, for British and Roman Camps and remains are to be found in several parts of the parish. The first fact we find recorded of Arley is in A.D. 996, when Wulfruna gave this Manor to the College of Canons at Wolverhampton.

The following is a list of the families who owned this Manor, with brief notes:—

A.D. WULFRUNA ... ... [Widow of Aldhelm, Earl of Northampton.]

granted the Manor to

996. THE CANONS OF WOLVERHAMPTON.

Circa [1040. ?LEOFRIC AND GODIVA] [These held Higley and Wolverley, adjoining parishes, and what is more likely that Leofric as "Lord of Mercia" held intervening land, i.e., Arley, though there is no proof of this†]

---

* "The Annals of Arley," by the Rev. H. R. Mayo, published by Hepworth, Kidderminster, 1915.

† Mr. T. Cave, of the Worcestershire Historical Society, thinks it "more than probable" that Leofric owned the Manor of Arley. c.f. Hemingi Liber de terris e reddititibus ecclesia e Wiggornienis, said by Round to be one of the best Land Books extant.

[1085.	?WILLIAM, THE CONQUEROR]	[Doomesday Book seems to infer that the Canons now held only ii Hides, and that William held the rest.]
1100.	HENRY DE PORT ...	[A Judge, and Baron of the Exchequer.]
1194-1199.	WILLIAM DE BRAOSE	[The Manor (apparently owing to de Braose being heavily in debt to the King) reverted to the Crown.]
	KING JOHN granted the Manor to
1227.	HUBERT DE BURGH ... who sold it to	[" The greatest subject in Europe," and Grand Justiciary of the Realm. Hubert de Burgh was an almost regal Lord of Arley, his first wife had been a King's wife, his last wife a King's sister, while he himself was descended from Arlotta, mother of William the Conqueror.]
1271 or 1272.	ROBERT BURNEL who conveyed it to	[Bishop of Bath and Wells, and Chancellor of England.]
	KING EDWARD who granted it to LEOTARD DE HENYN who sold it to	[There seem to be four Lords of the Manor in as many years.]
1274.	ROGER DE MORTIMER who sold it to	[The de Mortimers held the Manor for nearly 200 years.]
1425.	SIR WILLIAM BURLEY whose daughter married	[Of Bromscroft Castle.]
1470.	SIR THOMAS LYTTELTON whose descendant Lucy married	[A renowned Judge, and ancestor of the Lords Lyttelton, and Viscount Cobham.]
1767.	ARTHUR ANNESLEY ... whose descendant sold it to	[Viscount Valentia, afterwards created first Earl of Mountnorris.]
1852.	ROBERT WOODWARD ...	[The father of the present Lord of the Manor.]

Arley was formerly a " Peculiar," or as it is otherwise called " Donative," i.e., it was one of those Churches which was exempt from the jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese, and for this reason repudiated all Episcopal and Archideaconal authority. The right of being a " Peculiar " dates from A.D. 1255, when the Living was appropriated by the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield, after it had been given to them by Adam de Port.

The Ecclesiastical history of the Parish is given briefly in the notes appended to each name in the list of Vicars.

EXTRACT FROM ONE OF THE CHURCH DOCUMENTS.

"Henry de Port, one of the Barons of the Exchequer, built this Church and endowed it. His endowment consisted of 'all tythes of ye Parish, ye lands of Bromley Farm, and ye wood called Seckly.'"

LIST OF VICARS.

A.D.

1100-1135. (circa) ADAM de PORT. A Canon of Lichfield.
Adam was the son of Henry de Port, and the Pipe Roll of 13 Henry ii. shows that he held the Manor as well as the Church. In Henry i. reign Adam de Port made a Deed of Gift to the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield of the Advowson of Arnley, Staffordshire.

1216-1250. PHILIP de BRAY.
Appointed by the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield, who reserved to themselves "an annual pension of iii marks."
"The ville was then known as 'Arnley de Port' and was rated at xv marks."

1301-1311. (circa) PROBABLY THE LORD OF THE MANOR (ROBERT BURNEL) BUILT THE NORTH AISLE AND CHANCEL OF THE CHURCH.

1394. WILLIAM HULL*, Chaplain.

1439. WALTER LONGELY*, Chaplain.

1460. THOMAS LATEWAYTE*, Chaplain.

* The names of William Hull, Walter Longely, and Thomas Latewayte, "Chaplains," appear in "The Lyttelton Charters" either as Trustees, or Witnesses to Grants of Land in the years set against their respective names. The probability is that these three men were Vicars, though proofs are wanting. (See Annals of Arley, p. 107).

IN 1544, JOHN LYTTELTON BOUGHT A LEASE OF THE TITHES FROM THE DEAN AND CHAPTER OF LICHFIELD.

1548. GILBERT LYTTELTON BOUGHT THE ADVOWSON OF ARLEY, AND ARLEY WAS CONVEYED TO HIM ABSOLUTELY IN FEE.

EXTRACTS FROM CHURCH REGISTERS.

1564. SIR THOMAS HOLLAND, "prest." [? Vicar of the parish.]

1570. ROGER NEWTON. "Clarke," buried vith Marche.

1576. SIR PHILLIP TUSTEN, "Minister."

1578. JOSHUA TUSTEN, "Minister."

1584-1600. WILLIAM GREEN, "Curate."

1603. SIR THOMAS DOUGHTYE. [? Vicar of the Parish.]

1629. JOHN THOMASE.

1658. JOHN ORFORD, Minister.
"Presbyterian"; "outed" added in another hand, probably by the Bartholomew Act, 1662.

1666. JOHN WALDRON, Priest.
Probably appointed by "Sir Henry Lyttelton, Knight and Baronett" of the Manor of Arley. The last words entered in 1666 are "Sic desinit hujus Anni mirabilis Tabula." [Thus ends the Register of this wonderful year.] John Waldron was probably ejected. Richard Baxter, the vigorous Puritan, of the neighbouring parish of Kidderminister, was very violent, and doubtless such a strong Churchman as Waldron would come into conflict with the Puritanical ideas of his time. John Waldron's feelings are thus expressed when he resigned in 1682: "Ingrata parochia, ne ossa mea quidem habes.—Jo. Waldron, Clerk." ["O ungrateful parish, you have not even my bones."]

"Sir Henry Lyttelton, Baronet, out of regard to the service of God in the support of His ministers, gave the great tythes of that part of the parish which lies on the west side of the river Severn, together with the small tythes of the whole parish, to the Curate and his Successors for ever." (Arley Deed of Endowment).

1683. THOMAS PARKES.

The Registers are frequently signed, in addition to the Vicar's signature, by "the Churchwardens, the Constables, Overseers of ye Poore, and Supervisors of ye highwayes."

1700 WILLIAM WRIGHT.

"William Wright, Rector of Arley, was charged by his Churchwardens for brawling, etc."

1754. JOSEPH CHILLINGWORTH.

1758. JOHN BROOKE.

"The Rev. Mr. Brooke presented August 7th, 1758, by the Right Honourable George, Lord Lyttelton, Baron of Frankley."

"1783, Sept. So far before stamps commenced."

"1783, Oct. Here Stamp Act begins."

"In 1793, the Church being in a wretched condition, without any flooring, and the pews hardly usable, the parish resolved to have it completely repaired. Lord Valentia raised and enlarged the Eastern part of the Church, adding a painted window (by Eginton) which (as also the upper lights of the windows of the North Aisle, and the front of the Singing Gallery) is ornamented with the quarterings of the Houses of Annesley and Lyttelton. The whole expense of the improvements being about £1,000. The living is worth (1803) above £130 a year, and would be double that except for an unfounded claim which the present incumbent resists. T. Butt, 1801."

1794. THOMAS SIMON BUTT, A.B., Clerk.

Graduate of Christ Church, Oxford. "Presented by George, Lord Viscount Valentia, the 20th of June, 1794."

1800. THOMAS BUTT, A.B., Clerk.

"Presented Nov. 15th to the Curacy by George, Viscount Valentia, on the resignation of his father."

1807. GILES POWELL.

1812. EDWARD WHIELDON.

Founder of the "Whieldon Charity," which gives annual doles to the amount of £2 10s.

1819. JOHN ALLEN.

Presented by George Annesley, 2nd Earl of Mountnorris, of Arley Castle.

1851. RICHARD HUNT INGRAM.

1862. CHARLES JAMES WILDING, M.A.

"Charles James Wilding, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge, J.P., County of Montgomery, was appointed Vicar 1st July, 1862."

1885-6. The Church was restored, the gallery at the West End removed, the Chancel lengthened, the present vestry and organ chamber built, the Church re-seated and newly floored with red tiles. The Church was re-opened on S. Peter's Day, 1886, by the Lord Bishop of Lichfield (Dr. McLagan, afterwards Archbishop of York).

1895. ARLEY WAS TRANSFERRED FROM THE COUNTY OF STAFFORD TO THE COUNTY OF WORCESTER.

1903. WILLIAM LEA, M.A.

Presented by General Sir Arthur Lyttelton Lyttelton-Annesley, K.C.V.O.

"Nov. 8th, 1903. The Bishop of Lichfield (Dr. Legge) instituted and inducted the Rev. William Lea, M.A. (Keble College, Oxford, and Cuddesdon Theological College)."

"1905. ARLEY WAS TRANSFERRED FROM THE DIOCESE OF LICHFIELD TO THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER."

1912. HELLIER RANDALL MAYO, M.A.

Presented by General Sir Arthur Lyttelton Lyttelton-Annesley, K.C.V.O.

"June 23rd, 1912. The Rev. Hellier Randall Mayo, M.A. (Worcester College, Oxford, and Wells Theological College) was instituted and inducted by the Archdeacon of Worcester (the Ven. J. H. Greig) acting for the Bishop of Worcester (Dr. Yeatman-Biggs)." Compiler and Editor of "The Annals of Arley," published 1914. Transcriber of the Registers of the Parish of Over Areley, published 1916.

In the Church, which is dedicated to S. Peter, Apostle and Martyr, lies a Crusader's Tomb. Whose this is there is considerable doubt, but it seems almost certain to be that of Sir Walter de Balun, the first husband of Isolda de Mortimer. This subject has a chapter devoted to it in "The Annals of Arley. Against the North wall of the Church (in the Churchyard) rests an ancient stone coffin. From its shape, and the form of the cavity, the date would appear to be circa 1260-1280. Whether or no it ever contained the remains of Sir Walter de Balun it is impossible to say, but is about his time, for he was killed on his wedding day in a tournament at Southampton in 1270, and Isolda brought him to Arley and buried him in the Nave.

The place where the Rood Screen used to be in the Church may be seen by the colouring on the lowest timbers of the roof near the Chancel Arch. A curious and somewhat unusual feature of our Rood is that it seems to have been approached by an outside staircase. The little door (now blocked up) in the South Wall, was the means of exit, and the marks of the old staircase may still be clearly traced, step by step, on the exterior of the wall between the Vestry and the South Porch.

Another interesting feature of the Church is the old "Fresco," or "Doom Picture." The date of this is unknown. It was discovered at the restoration of the Church, when the whitewash was removed from the walls. This part of the wall above the Chancel Arch was built by the Lytteltons at the same time as the Clerestory Windows, and, therefore, this painting cannot date back further than 1480-1500. The pre-reformation roof is of elm, and was raised bodily at the time the clerestory was put in.

Neither the Mural Tablets nor the Brasses call for any special mention, being of the usual type. The former are erected to Lytteltons, and Annesleys, Viscounts Valentia and Earls of Mountnorris.

The East Window (by Kemp) is a memorial one, given by members of the Woodward family in 1887, while the Window in the East Wall of the North Aisle (by Elliot) is a window to the memory of the Annesleys.

The Church Plate is modern, "the gift of George the Earl of Mountnorris to the Parish of Over Areley, 1817." They consist of two large silver Chalices (8½ inches in height, and 4½ inches in diameter), two Patens (8 inches and 5½ inches in diameter), a Flagon (11 inches in height, 4 inches in diameter at the top, and 6½ at the foot). The ancient vessels probably shared the fate of most Church Plate, which at the Restoration of the Monarchy in 1660 was melted down to assist in filling the King's coffers.

As regards names, the boundaries of the parish are the same to-day as mentioned in Wulfruna's grant in A.D. 996, and frequently occur in the Registers, e.g., Hawkbatch, Brettells, Hextons, Bromley, Arley Wood, Shatterford, Barbrook, Worrals, High Trees, etc. The ancient names of hamlets still survive, viz., Woodseaves, Witnells End, Nash End, though Areley Street and Frenchman's Street are but seldom heard of. The former is the main village street, while the latter is the road leading from Arley to Shatterford. This last derived its name originally from the freemen of Arley mentioned in Doomesday Book. There are no less than three freemen returned in that survey, a remarkable fact, seeing there were only eighty-four in all Staffordshire!

Many farms and cottages still bear the old names as, e.g., Piggotts, Popehouse, Idyates, Castlehill, Baynhams, etc. The Idyates or Atyates being the farm where Worcestershire, Shropshire, and Staffordshire had their gates or entrances, i.e., where the three counties meet. The Popehouse Farm evidently derives its name from Pope a farmer, while Dutton's Farm obviously had its name given it from one Detton. The occasional description of someone living "under the bank" is an expression still in vogue.

Shortly after my arrival in the parish I was told I should find it "a bit banky about here"—meaning hilly. In the same way anyone dwelling west of the River is still described as so-and-so "over Severn." "High Trees" occurs fairly frequently in the Registers, from quite early times. This is the name of a beautiful half-timbered farmhouse, dated 1611 on one of the beams. It is said to have old monastic associations, and the ancient oak dams in the fish ponds seem to support this supposition. This farm contains some very fine oak panelled rooms, one of these being reserved as a "Church Room" where services are held on Sunday afternoons for the convenience of people in that outlying part of the parish (4½ miles from the Parish Church).

PARISH CHARITIES.

Henry Toy, late of Kidderminster, being a native of Arley, by his will (dat. June 6, 1711) gave the sum of £10 to be put to interest, and the profits to be disposed of yearly on S. Thomas' Day to five poor widows of this Parish. In default of them to five poor persons who receive no weekly allowance, with preference to those in Whitnells End.

William Clarke, an inhabitant of Arley, left by his will (dat. Sep. 5, 1720) the overplus of his personal estate, after payment of his debts, to the poor of this parish. It amounted to £16 2s. 10d.

Mr. Sympson, of this parish, in 1729, left to the poor of this parish £20, the interest to be paid for ever. (Shaw's History of Staffordshire).

The above sums were probably afterwards invested in land and merged in the Longmore Charity.

The Longmore Charity (presumably called after the ancient family of that name) consists of property, viz.,

Farmhouse and Land known as Castle Hill;
Cottages and Gardens ,, ,, The Herne Cottages;
Cottages and Gardens ,, ,, Mount Pleasant.

The income from the above amounts to £54 14s. gross, and is for distribution "to respectable poor persons" who are (1) born in the parish, or have resided therein for four years; (2) have not been in receipt of Parish Relief for six months previously. The doles (in money) are given each S. Thomas' Day and Good Friday, though of late the latter date has been altered to Easter Eve.

It is of interest to note in passing that the Herne Cottages mentioned above in old times were called the Heron Cottages as can be seen from certain entries in the Registers.

The Corbyn Charity, probably named after the old family at Eymore, consists of £100 Consols, the income of which is for distribution to the poor of the parish. It is given each year on S. Thomas' Day.

The two above Charities are administered by trustees, of which the Vicar is ex officio chairman.

The Whieldon Charity (£99 2s. 8d.) was given to the parish by the Rev. Edward Whieldon (see list of Vicars). The income, which amounts to £2 9s. 4d., is given in January each year, preferably to widows. This is distributed at the sole discretion of the Vicar of the Parish for the time being.

The Woodward Charity (£625—4% Preference Stock of London and North Western Railway) was given in a deed dated May 17th, 1884. The annual income (£25) is applied in the discretion of the Trustees in or towards the encouragement of thrift, education and temperance among the poor inhabitants of the parish, who shall not be in receipt of parochial relief, by paying or contributing to the payment of School Fees, or by subscribing to Elementary or Middle Class Schools, Hospitals, Dispensaries, Asylums, Benefit and other Clubs and Societies, Guilds or other Institutions having for their object the physical, social or moral welfare and improvement of the poor; provided that no part of the said income shall be applied directly or indirectly in aid or relief of any poor, school board, or other rates or assessments levied or to be levied on the said parish.

And now to turn to the consideration of the Registers. The history and origin of Register Books generally is of interest. Burn's Eccl.

Law, Vol. iii. p. 273, seq., says: "The keeping of a Church Book, for the age of those who shall be born and christened in the parish, began in the 30th year of King Henry viii. And the following Canon, in the main of it, was only a reinforcement of one of the Lord Cromwell's injunctions in the year 1538, which was continued in those of King Edward vi., and of Queen Elizabeth, in whose reign a protestation was appointed to be made by ministers at institution. At the head of it was: "————. I shall keep the register book according to the queen's majesty's injunctions."

By Canon 70:—"In every Parish Church and Chapel, within this realm, shall be provided one parchment book at the charge of the parish, wherein shall be written the day and year of every christening, wedding, and burial, which have been in the parish, since the time that the law was first made in that behalf, so far as the ancient books thereof can be procured, but esp. since the beginning of the late queen. And for the safe keeping of the said book, the churchwardens, at the charge of the parish, shall provide one sure coffer, with 3 locks and keys, whereof one to remain with the minister, and the other 2 with the Churchwardens severally, so that neither the minister without the Churchwardens, nor the Churchwardens without the minister, shall at any time take that book out of the said coffer. And henceforth upon every Sabath-day immediately after morning or evening prayer, the minister and churchwardens shall take the said parchment book out of the said coffer, and the minister in the presence of the churchwardens shall write and record in the said book, the names of all persons christened, together with the names and surnames of their parents, and also the names of all persons, married, and buryed in that parish, in the week before, and the day and year of each christening, marriage, and burial, and that done they shall lay up the book in the coffer as before. And the minister and churchwardens unto every page of that book, when it shall be filled with such inscriptions shall subscribe their names. And the churchwardens shall once every year within one month after the five and twentieth day of March, transmit unto the Bishop of the diocese, or his chancellor, a true copy of the names of all persons christened, married and buried in the parish of the year before (ended the said five and twentieth day of March) and the certain days and months, in which such christenings, marriage, or burial was had, to be subscribed with the hands of the said minister and churchwardens to the end the same may faithfully be preserved in the registry of the said bishop, which certificate shall be received without fee. And if the minister or churchwardens shall be negligent in performance of anything herein contained, it shall be lawful for the bishop or chancellor to convent them, and proceed against any of them as contemners of this our constitution."

The earliest extant Register Book of this parish dates from 1564. The parchments are bound in calf and consist of four volumes.

(1) 1564-1719. [The years 1588-1594 are missing.] 226 pages; size, 16in. x 7in. x 1½in.

(2) 1720-1812. 147 pages; size, 16in. x 10in. x 3in.

(3) 1754-1779. } 55 pages; size, 15in. x 10in. x 1in.
(4) 1779-1812 } Being Registers of Marriages with banns. 27 pages; size, 15in. x 10in. x ½in.

1649-1660. Commonwealth Registers are nearly always defective. Our registers are much damaged and the entries are fewer.

1646-1660. Commonwealth marriages were performed by the magistrates, hence these entries in Church Regiscters are few and far between. These civil marriages were valid, and legalised by 12, Charles II. Doubtless civil marriages between Arley people would be found in Kidderminister, Bewdley, and Bridgnorth—seats of the magistracy.

1645 (Nov.) and 1646 (March). Concerning the burials of "3 "soldiers slaine in this pishe yinfortunate," and the "unknowne "soldier who was taken up dead as he was swimming downe ye "River of Sabrine" (the italics are mine). A good deal could be said did space permit. These burials refer to the battles between Royalists and Parliamentarians in this district. The fight at or near Trimpley undoubtedly accounts for the three soldiers slain in this parish. In the year 1646 Sir Jacob Astley, for the King, collected a large force at Bridgnorth, and advanced on Kidderminster. The other soldier was evidently one of those who lost his way in retreat, and, probably at night, fell into the river and so was drowned. The Kidderminster registers have, I believe, many entries of burials of soldiers about this time showing that a large force was in this neighbourhood prior to the decisive battle of Worcester in 1651.

Among the burial entries will be found frequent mention of "affidavit made." This refers to 19, Charles II., an Act for burying in woollen (to encourage the wool industry). "An Act for the en-"couragement of the Woollen Manufactures of the Kingdom" directs that no person shall be buried "in any shirt, shift or sheet, other "than what is made of woollen only, upon pain of forfeiting the sum "of £5 to the use of the poor." This statute was re-enacted in 1678 (30, Charles II.) with many additional provisions for detecting and punishing evasions of the law, and directing parsons, vicars and curates to keep a register of burials. It was repealed in 1814.

In the year 1752 (25, George II.) the new style of reckoning was introduced. Up to this time, New Year's day was the day after 25th March. By this Act the day after December 31st, 1751, was to be called January 1st, 1752.

1753. (26, George II.) Lord Hardwicke's Marriage Act was passed to prevent clandestine marriages, and separate books for marriage entries were commenced.

By statute (23, George III.), 1783, a tax of 3d. was imposed for every entry made in Parish Registers. This evoked a good deal of opposition, and the Act was repealed in 1794.

In 1801 (41, George III.), a census was taken, based upon returns furnished by the clergy (c.f. page 337). The result was the discovery of hundreds of defective Registers.

1812 (52, George III.) Rose's Act placed all Registers under the control of the Registrar-General, and a new system of entries of baptisms and burials, necessitating new books, came into force on January 1st, 1813.

It will be seen that the name of Churchyard occurs with some frequency between the years 1394-1604. Doubtless, these are ancestors and relations of Thomas Churchyard, the Elizabethan poet, who, though born at Shrewsbury, once lived in this parish. A chapter on the Churchyard Family (with many extracts from Thomas Churchyard's poems) is included in my history of Arley, pp. 51 ff., to which those interested are referred.

Among the entries will be found some of very great interest.

P. 18. An unusual one being the marriage of Henry Grove and Frances Bilsley in which the Lord of the Manor obviously interfered, if he not arrange it. This may relate to "espousals de futuro," and that John Sebright as guardian of the one, probably the girl Bilsley (?Billingsley), of Ouley (Wolverley), held the fear of the Ecclesiastical censure upon the person refusing the contract, evidently an Arley man. The Lord of the Manor commanded such to take place, or the Church would issue a writ "excommunicato capiendo."

P. 20. The two lengthy entries are worth perusing.

P. 21. Contains mention of the Roman Road which lies on the eastern side of the parish. It can still be traced from Shatterford to near the Popehouse Farm.

P. 22. Evidently an occasion for the exercising of the discipline of the Church.

P. 52. There is nothing to show that "Henry Smith the passon" was a Vicar here.

P. 54. The note (re the delivery of the book) probably refers to 12, Charles II., an Act by which the Clergy recovered their rights, but not always their registers. This work, or memorandum, in all probability refers to the transfer of the Church Register to the proper Church Authorities at the Restoration of the Monarchy.

P. 63. Mentions the burial of a man "drowned S. Peter's Eve." The Feast of S. Peter being the Dedication Festival of the Church.

P. 80. The "yinfortunin" drowning of "a poor trowiange."

P. 98 Gives a delightful Irish "bull."

P. 124. "My viccaridge man" is buried.

P. 125 The baptism of "Peevey Peevey."

P. 128 It will be noticed that all the baptismal entries of John Waldron's children are marked with large initials in the margin. In the original there are wonderful flourishes and ornamental brackets.

P. 129. The experiences of the murderer's son.

P. 135. An entry of Baptism with a few poignant remarks added by John Waldron.

P. 138. John Waldron's opinion of those who delayed the baptism of their children.

P. 138. Quaint burial entry of Mrs. Margery Toy with verbose note. c.f. also.

P. 143. The burial of her husband

P. 139. A child's burial with note.

P. 148. First reference to affidavit made for burial in woollen.

P. 148. The untimely birth of Josiah [?Prages].

P. 149. The sympathetic reference to William Tudge.

P. 151 The drowning of Ursula Paine.

P. 152. Two quaintly worded entries of bastard children.

P. 154 The baptism of the foundling by the name of Peregrina de Dowles, probably inspired by John Waldron's witty brain.

P. 173. Tho. Parks' eulogy of Margery Hill (widow).

P. 174. The same vicar's praise of Ricd. Brown (which suspiciously resembles a part of a funeral oration!)

P. 175. The burial of the vicar's friend, Mr. Corbyn, of Eymore, "a right honest man."

P. 177. Tho. Parks takes the occasion of entering the burial of his wife as an opportunity of lamenting her decease.

P. 234. Burial of Margaret Renolds "not entered by Churchwardens."

P. 337. Gives the census of the parish in 1811: Total, 691. As a comparison the census for 1911 is given, viz., 634.

There are also several entries of the burials of persons drowned, and of colliers hurt in the pits, etc., etc.

The following transcript of the Parish Registers (except for abbreviations) is practically verbatim. But all entries of interest or quaintness are copied verbatim et literatim.

The following is an explanation of the use of brackets in the text of the Registers:—

[italics] Square brackets and italics = words inserted.
[?Holland] = looks like Holland, but doubtful.
[?] = illegible.
[blank] = blank space in Registers.
Browd—— = beginning / ———ard = and end } of name illegible.

I have to tender my thanks to Mr. Thomas Cave, of the Worcestershire Historical Society, for so ably assisting in perusing doubtful and barely legible entries and for his kindness at placing at my disposal his manuscript notebooks.

I also desire to record the fact that I am much indebted to my wife for all her valuable help in aiding me with the indexing of these Registers, a work of no small magnitude. Besides my "History of Arley," this is the only other book I have undertaken to index—and, sine dubio, the last!
